SEEK MISS SCHWARTZ'S RINGS

SHE HAD TAKEN THIRTY FROM HER SAFE DEPOSIT BOX.

set With Diamonds, the Police Hear -They're Not in Her Safe, Which Was Opened Yesterday-Its Contents Not Disturbed-Hunt for Woman Friend.

The safe owned by Henrietta Schwartz, the money changer and dealer in old stamps and coins, whose charred body was found in her rooms at 8 East Forty-second street on Wednesday morning, was opened yesterday. Her strong box in the Lincoln Safe Deposit vaults was also opened. In both valuables were found.

David Schwartz, one of the two brothers of the dead woman, was appointed administrator of his sister's estate yesterday, and in the afternoon he declared that he was ready to have her safe opened. The safe was opened by an expert in the presence of Mr. Schwartz, the police and Stillman F. Kneeland of 346 Broadway, who was Miss Schwartz's attorney. The safe did not look as if its con tents had been disturbed. Miss Schwartz's private papers were arranged neatly and is savings bank books were found in one drawer. There were two packages of table silver and two small gold cups and trays. There was a canvas bag of old coppers, several bags of old silver coins. half a dozen silver watches and a lot of odds and ends of jewelry.

No diamonds were found in the safe although Miss Schwartz had diamonds. Two weeks ago she went to her strong box in the Lincoln vaults and removed considerable of the jewelry she had kept there. According to a watcher at the vaults, she took away thirty diamond rings, explaining that she wanted them to wear to social affair. She never brought them back. The disappearance of these diamonds is one of the things the police are trying to clear up.

The young woman who spent the early evening of Tuesday with Miss Schwartz might be able to tell something about the missing jewels if she could be found. Search was made for this woman yesterday, but without success The description the police have of her

RING, LONG LOST, TURNS UP.

But Where's the Rest of Mrs. Jackson's Jewels and Her $1,800 in Money? Louis Silverman, an eighteen-year-old pedler, accompanied by a professional thief, entered a pawnshop near Chatham Square on Tuesday and tried unsuccessfully to pledge a ring for $360. The ring was worth three times that amount.

Detective Sergeant Granville was in the store at the time and he arrested the couple. Silverman at first said that his brother-inlaw had given the ring to him.

The brother-in-law proved to be Wolf Seigel, who was in charge of a Stanton street delicatessen store. He told Granstreet delicatessen store. He told Gran-ville that he never had a diamond ring in his life. The sleuth also learned that Silverman had suddenly become pros-perous in October last. He branched out as an East Side sport, bought the store, paying $450 for it and gave Seigel a job paying $450 for it, and gave Seigel a job.
Then Granville went at Silverman again.
Silverman, who was locked up at Headquarters, finally said that a man whom he knew only as "Joe," and with whom he worked on an apple pedler's wagon in September, had found a pocketbook and gave him the ring and 480 to say nothing shows him the ring and $60 to say nothing about

Inspector McClusky huntedup the record inrecovered losses and discovered that Mrs. W. E. Jackson of 37 West Twenty-fourth street had on Sept. 18 reported the loss of a pockethook containing four diamond rings. a pair of diamond earrings and some $1,800.

McClusky sent for Mrs. Jackson yesterday and showed her the ring. With the help of the jeweller from whom she bought it she was able to prove to the Inspector's satisfaction that it was hers. It is set with a four karat stone of unusual brilliancy. Jackson was positive she had not been robbed.

"I had just left my house and was going to the bank," she said yesterday: "As I reached the corner of Sixth avenue a man called my attention to the fact that my chatelaine bag was open. I then discovered that the pocketbook was gone. No me was near me as I walked down the one was near me as I walked down the

The professional thief was turned loose vesterday, but Silverman will be arraigned technical charge of larceny in the bs court to-day. In this way McClusky lombs court to-day. In this way McClusky topes to secure a court order directing the return of the lone ring to Mrs. Jackson.

The inspector is of the opinion that Silverman found the pocketbook and yet has some he jewelry hidden or knows where it was

TO RESUBMIT CONRAD CASE. Grand Jury Will Take Up Again the Charges

Against the Doctor. Recorder Goff signed an order yesterday permitting the District Attorney to resubmit to the Grand Jury the case of Dr. Edward E. Conrad of 127 West Forty-seventh reet, accused of attempting to perform a criminal operation.

It is said that the Grand Jury dismissed the complaint on Wednesday because the witnesses used the term "the operation" instead of describing it more definitely. District Attorney Jerome said that in he case of a man held in bail to await the see case of a man held in ball to await the action of the Grand Jury on a complaint which the Grand Jury dismisses, the ball would hold good until dismissed either by application of the District Attorney or by direct order of the court. Neither action has been taken in Dr. Conrad's case. His ball is $4.00

FOUND HER BUSBAND'S SLAYER. OUR NUGGET FALLS IN RACE. Kitty Duffy's Search Rewarded When Sh

Charles Devuono, an Italian, of 93 Roose relt street, and a member of the old Five Points gang, was arrested early yesterday morning in the back room of a Bowery saloon on the charge of killing Richard Duffy. Kitty Duffy, wife of the murdered man, had been looking for Devuono ever since her husband's death and it was she who found him yesterday. Duffy and Devuono and a party of friends were drinking in the "Morgue," a saloon at 9 Bowery. They quarreled and went out in the street, where the fight was continued. In the mix-up that followed, Devuono is said to have stabbed Duffy fifteen times with a pocketknife.

Devuono disappeared and Duffy walked to his home at 191 Front street, Brooklyn. He was later removed to the Cumberland Street Hospital and died there on Feb. 7.

Kitty Duffy was with her husband when the fight began and saw Devuono well enough to recognize him. After her husband's death she spent all her time in Bow ery resorts, where she was well known. Devuono went to Pittsburg, but he couldn't keep away from the Bowery.

Kitty Duffy saw him early Tuesday evening and followed him from place to place. Shortly after midnight he sat down in the back room of the Bank Café at 116 Bowery.

A few minutes later Kitty rushed into the Mulberry street station and got Sergt. Sul-

LAND FRAUD ARRESTS.

F. A. Hyde and H. P. Diamond Held on Indictments in Washington.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.-Frederick A. Hyde and Henry P. Diamond, clubmen and attorneys, were arrested this morning by Secret Service Agent George A. Hazen for alleged complicity in the wholesale land and timber frauds in the West. They, with John M. Benson, also of this city, and J. H. Schneider of Tucson, Ariz., were indicted yesterday by the Grand Jury of the District of Columbia and warrants for them were issued. This morning Diamond, who had scouted all idea of being placed in jail, walked into the office of United States Attorney Woodworth.

"I am Henry P. Diamond," he said, "and called to see what was to be done in this so-called land fraud case."

Diamond protested, but was allowed to go out to secure ball. United States Attorney Woodworth anticipates a bitter struggle by both defendants to ward off extradition. My case is well outlined, however," he said, "and I am sanguine of success in sending both to Washington, where they must stand trial."

There were no diamond rings in the lot.

A man employed in the building in which Miss Schwartz lived did a good deal of talking yesterday about the dead woman and her Bostion visitors, but after he began to tell conflicting stories the police stopped trying to run down his clues. Capt. Burfeind and his detectives are satisfied that Miss Schwartz had been drinking the night before she died. Six empty whiskey bottles were found in her ice chest.

"I am of the same opinion now that I was when I first began to investigate," said Burfeind last night. "I am satisfied the woman's death was an accident. The missing diamonds, of course, make it look strange, but then she might have sold them between the time she took them from the safety vault and her death."

Policeman's Slayer Found Guilty. WHITE PLAINS, Feb. 18 .- A jury in the Supreme Court here to-day found a verdict of murder in the first degree against Francesco Raffo, who shot to death Policeman Maurice Ahearn in Rochelle Park, New Rochelle, on June 20 last. Raffo testified that he thought the policeman was a loafer, who intended to rob him. His sweetheart, who at first turned against him, said that if he was acquitted she would marry him.

ccurred near the finish of the third race at the Fair Grounds to-day. Our Nugget, who was in the middle of the field, fell with Jockey W. Hennessy. Hennessy quickly rose to his feet, and limped to the judges' stand, but Our Nugget remained prostrate on the course. At first it was thought that the mare was dead, but after five minutes she managed to get to her feet. She was quickly carted off to her stable, and no doubt will be destroyed. Hennessy escaped serious injury. Dallas, the speedy Texas sprinter, was the favorite for the race, but was nowhere at the finish. Presentation, a 13 to 1 shot, won, ridden out, by a length from Our Lillie, another outsider. Before the race Presenta-tion was offered for sale at $500, but no one tion was offered for sale at $500, but no one would have the mare at that figure.

It was an exceptionally good day for racing, as the weather was very warm and the track at its best. The bookmakers and their clerks worked in their shirt sleeves, and top coats were dispensed with. The majority of the winners were all but played off the boards, and the books received a sound drubbing.

The fifth race produced a nose finish between Vestry and Arachue. The judges placed Vestry first. Arachue was the best horse in the race, but was cut off at the three-quarter pole, and Walsh pulled his whip too late. When Vestry was offered for sale she was run up to $1,505 and bought in by her owner. Mose Goldblatt, the owner of Vestry, claimed Arachue for $1,000.

Jockey E. Walsh, who rode for Father Bill Daly on the New York tracks, to-day received a contract from Daly and a letter notifying him that he had been sold to J. S. Holland of New York. HUNTING GROUND IN THEGARDEN Sportsmen's Show Opens To-night

With Many Attraction The tenth annual Sportsmen's Show wil open this evening at Madison Square Gar-den. This year the show will be for all in erested in sports and there will be no side shows such as dancing Indians or singing finishing touches were being given to the theatre into a hunting ground, and to-day scenery, which has transformed the big amphitheatre into a hunting ground, and to-day the exhibitors will get all their attractions into position so that when the doors are open at 8 o'clock in the evening everything will be in readiness for visitors.

At the Fourth avenue end of the Garden a piece of scenery represents some rugged mountains between which is a beautiful valley. Streams run down the sides of the mountains and turn two old-fashioned water wheels, and then the water tumbles into a lake that takes up most of the floor space. This lake is to be used for manufacturers of motor boats and any one who is interested in a boat can see how it will run. On this lake at regular intervals each day there will be log rolling contests cance races, tilting matches, water pushball and other sports that will interest the public. A separate pool has been built for the fly casters and a tournament will be in progress during the two weeks of the show. The first contest will be this evening. It is for youths under 20 years of age.

A part of the lake will be used for an exhibition of wild water fowl and a very interesting exhibition of ducks and geese will be seen at the show. A fish hatchery exhibit has been arranged, and tiny trout from a few days to three or four weeks old will prove another attraction.

In the basement of the Garden rifle and revolver ranges have been built and there will be exhibition shooting as well as contests for which some of the crack shots of the country have entered.

There will be a large exhibition of auto boats at the show this year, and some of the best that have been built this winter have been got ready especially to be exhibited at this show. The Herreshoff boat for Frank Croker, the Vingt-Et-Un that is to race for the British international cup and the new bout that is to race against the Vingt-Et-Un before that boat is sent abroad are to be on hand. Some of the boats are very peculiarly shaped and enthusiasts will find much in them to study.

ICE YACHTING.

Rover, Skedaddle and Harold Win Trophles.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Feb. 18.-New York ice vachtsmen won the trophies and pennants Shrewsbury Ice Yacht and Boat Club. Charles J. Gibbon's Red Rover took the Coley war trophy. H. N. Baruch's Skededdle the third trophy, H. N. Baruen's Skededdle the fourth class and Bayar Dominick's Harold the fourth class club pennants for 1904.

The finish between the Red Rover and the Sweetheart for the Coley war trophy was exciting. The Sweetheart held the lead for the first three laps, when she was passed by the Red Rover. The latter, captained by Thomas Riddle, crossed the line a winner by ten seconds. The Red Rover's time for the fifteen miles was 37 minutes 46 seconds. The trophy is valued at $200.

Four yachts started for the third class club pennant. The wind was light, which handicapped the Eagle and the Shrewsbury. The Sweetheart got stuck in a snowbank, leaving Capt. Woolley to sail home with the Skedaddle alone. The time for the twelve miles was 43 minutes. Five yachts started for the fourth class club pennant. Dominick's Harold, sailed by E. W. Price, and Clark Price's Magnolia, sailed by William Buxton, were the only two to finish. The Harold's time for the three lap course was 43 minutes. The Magnolia was three minutes behind. The Brooklyn club sent a contract to Jack Doyle yesterday. The erack first baseman is in Holyoke, and the cranks have been wondering whether the Brooklyns intended springing him again or not. There seems to be some doubt as to whether the Brooklyns will get First Baseman Dillon of California. Ebbets says, however, that Brooklyn's contract with Dillon antedates that player's contract with the California club.

minutes individual instruction in "limbering up"

Of last year's team, the following men are eligible to play again this year: Capt. Mac-Dowell behind the bat. Coe at first base. Simmons at third base, Dollard at short. Tuthill at centre field, Halsey at right field and Reilley in the box. This leaves vacancies in left field and at second base. The weakest point at present seems to be in the pitching staff, as O'Connor was the mainstay in this department last season and the team loses his services on account of graduation. Lowther, the pitcher of the freshman team last season, will probably round into a useful man this year.

SPORTING GOSSIP OF TO-DAY.

MADDEN'S MISFORTUNE IN LOS-ING STAR THOROUGHBREDS.

Pulsus Now Reported to Be on the Sick List-Plunger Yeager's Methods in Frisco-Will Fitzsimmons Take Gn

McCoy?-Jeffries Favors Tom Sharkey.

John E. Madden seems to be unable to shake off the run of misfortune which his was a hard matter for him to reconcile himself to the death of his famous imported stallion Mirthful, and it was also a severe blow to him when the remarkable two-yearold The Minute Man, who took McChesney's measure last summer in a special race, had to be destroyed at Brighton Beach. A greater misfortune, perhaps, was the recent death of the three-year-old Mirthful colt, Aristocracy, with whom Madden expected to clean up a wealth of prizes this year. But to cap the climax comes the story from Kentucky that the big Top Gallant three year old, Pulsus, is on the sick list and may not train on. Pulsus was the biggest two-year-old, physically, on the Eastern turf last year when Madden bought him back from E. R. Thomas for $15,000, it was said the cold fact, Madden predicted at the end of the racing season that in Aristocracy and Pulsus he would have two of the best three-yearolds in the country this year. Pulsus was brought East by "Bud" May last spring together with Highball and Wotan. Madder looked the trio over and selected Pulsus for Mr. Thomas, the latter owning a half interest with Madden. Pulsus was regarded as the best two-year-old colt of the year until Highball developed later and wrested the palm from him. Wotan, who will run in the name of the Rampton Stable does not Africander. Joe Yeager, the "boy plunger," has been cutting a wide swath in California this winter. Hildebrand and has made the ring sizzle by playing his mounts. A well known turfman has recently circulated this story about

believe that he may turn out to be a second

Yeager's proceedings: "When Yeager decides to play one of Hildebrand's mounts it is a circus to watch Wally Brinkworth, who makes book for him, boost the price without refusing the money or rubbing. Wally, who is a lightning money grabber, gets as slow as molasses. He suddenly becomes deaf, too, and asks a bettor two or three times what horse he wants, after which he takes off his hat and wipes his head, while the crowd howls to get the money down with him. Meanwhile Yeager's commissioners are hustling from book to book placing $100 and $200 at a clip, while Wally is slowly taking $2 and $5 bets. The opera glass men on the other side of the ring duly report to their blockmen that Yeager has the price up and is taking the money through Wally, which is a fact on the face of it. But Wally never sees the gold coin and the yellow backs, but grabs the silver certificates of the "pikers." Ed Stutte, who has been making a big book in Frisco, is said to be $75,000 winner, while Frank Lauterman says he is $80,000 loser. brand's mounts it is a circus to watch Wally With Jim Corbett unwilling to fight

With Jim Corbett unwilling to fight Fitz-simmons for "at least two years," Kid McCoy comes to the front with an offer to fight the Cornishman for the middleweight championship of the world at the regulation limit, 159 pounds, and says he will post a forfeit of $1,000 to bind the match. Fitzsimmons has insisted all along that he is the real middleweight champion because he won the title from the late Jack Dempsey and has never been beaten at the weight. McCoy weighed 164 pounds stripped a few days ago and expressed confidence in his ability to get down to 158 and be strong. Fitz has offered to fight anybody at this weight, particularly Ryan, who has claimed the middleweight title for some time, but the latter has avoided Robert at every angle. If McCoy posts his forfeit and actually means business, it will be up to Fitz to fight him or give up the title. As Fitz always expressed a desire to get a crack at McCoy, it will be surprising if he refuses the Kid's challenge.

Champion Jeffries is showing at a local theatre. The big fellow has taken on weight since he took Corbett's measure on the Coast, but he says he can fit himself for a mill inside of four weeks or less. The Boilermaker is more interested in the outcome of the coming battle between Sharkey and Munroe than anybody eise, for he will lose no time in taking on the winner. While Jeffries has never made a prediction, he believes, it is said, that Sharkey will win, for he says that of all the men he has defeated the Sailor was the hardest problem to solve. But if he meets Sharkey again, the champion feels sure that he will whip him in jig time. "When we fought before, and Sharkey stayed twentysure that he will whip him in jig time. "When we fought before, and Sharkey stayed twenty five rounds," said Jeffries the other night, "I had no left hand. I went through the mill using the left only as a guard, while I did all my punching with right hand counters. That was why Sharkey went the limit. He was game, however, and put up a wonderful fight. His physical condition helped him, no doubt, and if he can be as fit again he will be a worthy foe." Jeffries thinks that Sharkey would be a better drawing card than Munroe in a fight with him for the championship, but there is a difference of opinion on this point among sporting men. Should Munroe heat Sharkey, it would be up to on this point among sporting men. Should Munroe beat Sharkey, it would be up to Jeffries to prove that the miner was only lucky when he stayed four rounds with him

The latter's decision in the Ridgewood case is looked for to-morrow, but there may be a further de'ay.

Indoor Tennis Championship Tourney Be gins To-day.

The annual tennis tournament for the door championship of the United States will be started this afternoon at the Seventh Regiment armory, Sixty-sixth street and Park avenue The events will be singles and doubles, and play will be started at 2 o'clock. On Monday p lay will commence at 10 o'clock in the morning and continue all day. For the past two days the armory courts have been open for practice and a number of well known players have been at work. The present champions, Robert Le Roy and Wylie Grant of the New York Tennis Club will compete again this year. Their record last summer in Europe makes them the favorites for the title this year. According to the rules of the tourney they must work their way up from the opening rounds instead of meeting the winners in a challenge match. Others who are entered are the Cragin brothers, E. L. Tailer and Palmer, Harry Allen and T. R. Pell Park avenue The events will be singles and Newark Cricket Club Elects Officers.

The Newark Cricket Club has elected the following officers for the season of 1904: President, C. C. Luirch: vice-presidents, Westhug and R M Gibson: secretary H. Westhug and R. M. Gibson: secretary and treasurer, C. K. Murray, 572 Summer avenue, Newark, N. J. capiain, R. E. Torrence; vice-captain, J. A. Booth

The club has decided to reenter the championship series of the New York Cricket Association and looks forward to an active season. The headquarters of the club will be at Branch Brook Park, where the park commissioners are doing everything possible to improve the condition of the turf and where it is expected a good wicket will be obtainable.

The Ford Motor Car (The Car of Satisfaction)

Ready for Immediate Delivery

The only car on the market having a double opposed cylinder motor, with tonneau, seating four facing forward, sold at or near its price, is the FORD, at $900. (Runabout, seating two. $800).

The FORD is the car that everybody interested in small machines is talking about. And fortunately it is made by a concern with the enterprise, as well as the facilities to supply at least the early demand promptly. Undoubtedly the demand will exhaust the output, as soon as fine weather comes; but we have ample supplies ready as we write, for those who buy early. Being the only double cylinder car sold at the same price as single cylinder cars, naturally the public will want the FORD-particularly since we've shown you that the Bogey Man and his tom toms are entirely harmless; and have guaranteed to take care of any possible litigation that the Trust may threaten.

Another interesting bit of news is the fact that we have just secured the Agency, in New York and Philadelphia and surrounding territory, for Crescent Players Win a Close Game From the Hockey Club.

The Crescent A. C. and Hockey Club of New York played a game at the St Nicholas and was a close, hard fight from start to finish. The Crescents won by a score of goals to 3. The Crescents did not play nearly as good a game as when they defeated th Montreal players last week, while the Hockey Club team showed very much improved form. The Hockey Club played an aggressive game and frequently kept the Crescents on the defensive. They shot several times and only missed scoring by a few inches. The game was at times quite rough. Russell and O'Flynn were both sent to the bench.

Wall was the particular mark for the Hockey Club players and he was sent to the ice several times during the contest. About ten minutes after the game started, R. Howard was struck in the groin with a stick and had to be carried off the ice. It was found that he had received a nasty cut and Huntington was put in the game in his place.

Liffton played a very good game for the minutes. He was everywhere he was was tot Lifiton played a very good game for the winners. He was everywhere he was wanted and scored all four goals. Ellison was in good form and succeeded in stopping several hard shots. The game started off with a rush, and after four minutes of fast play Lifiton scored the first goal from a scrimmage. Four minutes later Russell scored for the Hockey Club, and the half ended with a goal to the credit of each side.

In the second half Liffiton and Bryan faced off near the Hockey Club goal. Lifiton secured the puck and shot it into the net on the next play. Russell rushed the puck and scored unassisted, and the game stood a tie. Liffiton then made a good clean goal from the side of the rink and Russell soon afterward tied the score again. The last and winning goal was made by Liffiton a few minutes before the time whistle was blown
